

ABC Kick - Terms and Conditions

Session Policy

- During any ABC Kick session, each responsible adult must stay within sight of their child at all times.
- You are responsible for your child, if at any point a coach deems your child needs to sit out for disrupting the session, please respect this and support ABC Kick by insisting your child sits on the side with you for up to 5 minutes.
- Ensure noise from adults and siblings is kept at a minimum during the session.
- Please remember to tell a coach if you are taking your child and leaving the session before it ends. (This is especially important for fire evacuation reasons).
- No food/ snacks should be consumed during a session, due to choking reasons.

Photos

- If you would like to take photos, we can accommodate this before or after a session. You MUST ensure no other child's face is in your picture.
- We kindly ask responsible adults to NOT take any photographs during sessions.
- On occasion we will have a photographer come along to take photos during the session. ABC Kick will be responsible to gain consent for each child who is photographed.

Cancelled Class

- If a class must be cancelled by ABC Kick for absolutely any reason you will be informed as soon as possible before the session. You will then be invited to an alternative session.

Missing a Class

- The responsible adult understands that sessions are to be used consecutively.
- If you cannot attend a session for whatever reason, you will lose that session, alternatively you have the options to send a friend.
- Send a friend – if you have a friend (the same age) you would like to send in replacement of your child, just inform ABC Kick at least 24 hours in advance.

Discipline

- If ABC Kick concludes that the behaviour of any child or responsible adult is undesirable in any way, ABC Kick holds the right to ban the child and/or responsible adult from the program for as long as ABC Kick decides.

Payment

- The first session is free, however all payment must be made in full, before any session thereafter.
- All payment is non-refundable under any circumstances.
